Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rayment, U.S. Patent No. 5551298.

Regarding claim 1, Rayment discloses an identification of vibration induced noises on vehicles. Rayment disclosure includes system/apparatus for identifying noise, based upon a set of stored data in a database, and comparator means for comparing the stored data and another data used to determine the noise source characteristics (col. 2, lines 17-51, col. 3, lines 52- col. 4, lines 15-63, col. 6, lines 61 –col. 8, line 7), which indicates a design of an assembly, a point selection subsystem, and a point evaluation subsystem, therein.

Regarding claim 2, Rayment discloses everything claimed as applied above (see claim 1). Rayment further discloses the noise as either a rattle or squeak (col. 3, line 47 and/or col. 4, lines 49-50), which reads on the noise characteristic as a buzz, squeak or rattle.
